Old Fliegler's Farm Girl Scout Overnight Camping Adventure!

Donkeys and Goats and Chickens . . . Oh My!

What do they eat and how do they act? What sounds do they make? What are their specific needs? How long do they live? How are they similar? How can animals help humans? Can they be trained? Can they help reduce stress and blood pressure? All questions that will be answered. We will be training, grooming and feeding the flock while reducing our stress at Old Fliegler's Farm.

Pick two programs from below (one for Saturday and one for Sunday)

Get in the Green!

We will explore wonderful concepts to create a better planet. Learn about rainwater catchment systems, mulching, drought tolerant plants, recycling, and solar energy.

Don't Panic . . . It's Organic!

Why is organic gardening so important? The Girl Scouts will learn about different soil types, composting, beneficial insects, and the importance of healthy eating.

Are You an Eco Believer?

Are your typical household cleaners, dishwashing detergents, shampoos, and soaps safe? Let's do some research and then make your own natural concoctions to take home.

Here Comes the Sun!

Harness the power of the sun and cook your food in an ecological, economical, and time-saving manner. How does solar cooking work and what are the benefits? We will collect farm fresh eggs and cook them in your very own homemade solar oven.
